

Hi, I'm Lou I'm French tho I never really lived in France but in live in different countries/places!! I've lived in Equatorial Guinea, Nigeria, Egypt and now the uk!!

I also been to a lot of different countries for vacation as I live discovering new places and culture.

id be more than happy to represent international students as I know it can be complicated to go to a new country especially for the first time! I'd be happy to give advice and help but also gather international student from different places together
